

NATALIE KLYASHTORNY

Natalie is a Shareholder at Nochumson P.C. and leads the firm's Litigation Team, where she brings broad-based experience to high-stakes business, commercial, and real estate litigation. Known for her strategic thinking, practical counsel, and commanding courtroom presence, Natalie represents a wide range of clients—including real estate developers, investors, contractors, small and mid-sized businesses, and individuals—in both state and federal courts.

Her practice spans real estate disputes, business conflicts, construction defect, boundary and title disputes and commercial transactions, making her a trusted advisor for clients navigating complex legal challenges.

Natalie's excellence has earned her consistent recognition. Since 2015, she has been named a Pennsylvania Super Lawyer in Business Litigation by Philadelphia Magazine, following earlier honors as a Super Lawyer Rising Star in 2007, 2008, 2010, 2011, and 2012.

A respected practitioner and leader in the legal community, Natalie is frequently appointed by the Court to serve as a Hearing Officer in partition actions and a Judge Pro Tem to conduct settlement conferences.

Natalie currently serves as Chair of the Philadelphia Bar Association's Real Property Section and is a voting member of its Commission on Judicial Selection and Retention. She has also served as Assistant Treasurer and as a member of the Board of Governors from 2013 through 2015. In 2019, she co-chaired the Bar Association's Bench-Bar & Annual Conference, its premier event for legal education and networking.

Natalie is the immediate past Chancellor of the Louis D. Brandeis Law Society, where she championed the advancement of Jewish legal professionals. She is also an active member of the Temple American Inn of Court, where she collaborates with judges, attorneys, and students to promote legal ethics and professionalism.

Earlier in her career, Natalie chaired the Young Lawyers Division of the Philadelphia Bar Association, authored a monthly legal column, and co-chaired both the City Policy Committee and the Solo and Small Firm Management Committee.

Natalie is admitted to practice law in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, the State of New Jersey, the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, the United States District Court for the Middle District of Pennsylvania, and the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey.

Natalie obtained her undergraduate degree at American University and graduated from Temple University School of Law.
